

NATIONAL CRIME INFORMATION CENTER CHECK (NCIC)

In accordance with the Hemp Growth Act, Rhode Island General Laws Chapter 2-26, all Industrial Hemp Handler/ Grower/ Dual owners, members, officers, directors, managers and agents as well as CBD/ Hemp Derived Consumable Retailers and Handlers (1 person per CBD license) will be subject to a national criminal background check as part of their application for a registry identification card.

You may obtain a NCIC by appointment only with the Rhode Island State Police by calling (401) 764-5364 to make an appointment to visit the RISP Headquarters at 311A Danielson Pike North Scituate, RI 02857. Currently only the State Police are allowed to provide NCIC results for Hemp applicants. Please contact them with any questions regarding fees or other matters associated with this process. Applicants are responsible for any expenses associated with the NCIC. Per the RISP walk-ins will be turned away. You MUST make an appointment using the above phone number.

As part of the NCIC your fingerprints will be taken and submitted to the FBI. Once the check has been processed the results will be sent directly to the Cannabis Control Commission and a copy will be sent to you. Please bring this form to the law enforcement agency and inform them that you are applying for an Industrial Hemp or CBD Consumable License, so that the results are sent to the correct agency.
