

NATIONAL CRIME INFORMATION CENTER CHECK (NCIC)

In accordance with The Edward O. Hawkins and Thomas C. Slater Medical Marijuana Act, Rhode Island General Laws Chapter 21-28.6, all compassion center, licensed cultivator and licensed lab owners, members, officers, directors, managers and agents, and Medical Marijuana Program Caregivers will be subject to a national criminal background check as part of their application for a registry identification card.

Please obtain a background check (NCIC) from your local police department, the Rhode Island Department of the Attorney General (401-274-4400), or by appointment with the Rhode Island State Police (401-444-1000). Please contact them with any questions associated with this process. Applicants are responsible for any expenses associated with the NCIC.

As part of the NCIC your fingerprints will be taken and submitted to the FBI. Once the check has been processed the results will be sent directly to the Cannabis Control Commission and a copy will be sent to you. Please bring this form to the law enforcement agency and inform them that you are applying for a Medical Cannabis License or a Caregiver Registration, so that the results are sent to the correct agency.
